Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Lord were in Lewiston Wednesday.

Frank Brown and Fred Bean were in Portland Monday.

Ed Smith was called to Portland Wednesday by the death of his sister.

Barbara Bean was in Portland Monday.

E. E. Storey was a week end guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Ramsey. Frank Trimbach was a week end guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Ramsey. Mr. Edward Terrio is visiting his sister at Hiram, Mrs. Daniel

Wells. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Van Den

Kerkhoven were in Lewiston on Wednesday. George Thompson was at Dover-croft Monday and Tuesday on business. Mrs. Adelaide Storey is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. W.

Ramsell. Miss Marian King spent the Thanksgiving vacation with Miss Edna Rowe. Mr. and Mrs. Dayton Merrill left

Monday morning for South Palm Beach, Florida. Al Freestone and Lauris Tyler of Winnipeg were recent guests at Mr.

Storey's home here. Mrs. Sherman Allen, Mrs. Owen

Harsh and Mrs. Adney Curney were in Berlin one day recently.

Mrs. Sarah Wheeler returned to Winnipeg Saturday after a two days visit with relatives in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lord, Mrs.

Anne Bennett and Mrs. Lena Wheeler were in Lewiston Wednesday. Mrs. Esther Tyler and Lauris were on holiday and week end visitors of their parents, Mr. and E. F. J. Tyler. Edward Storey has employment with the Houghton-Oquossoc road and is being prepared for construction in the spring. Mr. and Mrs. Loton Hutchinson and daughter of West Bethel were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. H. Clifford on Sunday afternoon. Edward Carlson and family of Winnipeg, Mass., were guests of Mr.

and Mrs. Tuell and family for Thanksgiving and the week end. The shingling is nearly completed and the work of exterior plastering and glazing sash is under way at the new Academy building.

At Locke Mills, Monday night,

Bethel Footlight Club presents comedy, "I Like Your Nerve."

The proceeds will go toward buying equipment for the kitchen of Town Hall. The regular meeting of the Parsonage Association will be held next Monday evening, Dec. 11.

The program is being arranged by Miss Ethel Bisbee, Mrs. T. I. Brown and Mrs. Owen Richards. The Ladies' Club will meet Dec.

Thursday afternoon, with Mrs.

Robert C. Rowe. The time will be devoted to the making of bags for Christmas trees. Each lady is expected to bring needle, thimble, stitching or yarn to use in making the bags. Joseph Baker, Jr., and Miss Helen Wheeler, both of Bethel, were united in marriage at the Methodist church, Thursday evening, Nov.

15. The single ring ceremony was performed by Rev. R. C. Dalzell.

BASKETBALL SEASON OPENS TOMORROW

Gould Plays Three Home Games in First Week—Alumni, Gorham and Rumford

Basketball is opening in Bethel with a bang as the Gould quintet opens with three home games in the next seven days. The lid will be opened tomorrow night when the Alumni will test the skill of the new Academy team. This game will start at eight o'clock and should prove a great attraction.

Featured in the Alumni lineup will be "Lanky" Austin center of 1928 and Jack Parsons another big man dating back in the twenties.

"Willie" Bartlett, George Parsons,

"Stubby" Wheeler, Morris Vail,

Custer Quimby, Hedley Wheeler,

Ardell Hinkley and Addison

Saunders will all be available and these men should prove a formidable opponent for the local teams.

Coach Anderson's lineup will include Captain Browne, Allen, Stanley, Wight, Martinson, Dwyer, Bartlett, and Berry. These men are all showing up well in practice and it is now a question of who can display his worth under fire in a game. It is hoped that the townspeople will turn out in large numbers to support the team of 1934. This game will start at 8 p. m. Admission to this game will be 25c but all others will be 35c. Season tickets at a great saving in price will be offered for $1.50 for eight home games. Gorham Here Tuesday

Gorham's veteran team of the White Mountain League will invade the local school next Tuesday with a formidable team. The visitors have been practicing for over a month and this will be their third game of the season. The Gorham outfit feels confident of upsetting the Blue and Gold hoopers this year due to the excellent game they played against the local team last winter. Gould respects the prowess of the Herman coached aggregation but feel that they will be able to give a good account of themselves.

This game is a double-header.

The second teams will play at 7:30 and the varsity teams at 8:30. H.

H. Sampson of Bridgton will re-fered. Rumford Here Thursday

CIVIL WORKS FUNDS AVAILABLE ON LOCAL PROJECTS

Over $5,000 To Be Expended on Roads and Schoolhouses

Work is expected to begin next Monday on surfacing roads in Bethel as a result of money made available to the town through the Civil Works Project. The roads to be benefitted are the West Bethel Flat and Northwest Bethel. Twenty-eight men, besides foreman and timekeeper, will be employed, and eight trucks will be in use. The amount to be furnished by the Federal government is $4740, and the town's share is set at $360, which includes furnishing two trucks and the gravel. The work will continue 10 weeks, four days a week, and the wages are 40 cents an hour.

Local men will be employed but they must be registered at Rum-ford. Four schools will be painted and some on the inside, with funds from the same source. Work started Wednesday, the material being furnished by the town. The amount available for labor is $720 and the town's share is estimated at $200.

The primary schoolhouse in the village will be painted, and the buildings at Northwest Bethel, West

Bethel, and Middle Intervale.

A third room will be built at the Locke Mills schoolhouse as well as room for a furnace in the basement.

The town (Greenwood) furnishes the necessary material and the allocated amount is understood to be

$3,800. GILEAD MAN INJURED AT

WILD RIVER C. C. CAMP

Edward Holden, of Gilead, met with a painful accident Monday afternoon, Nov. 27, when he was struck by a truck while at his work at the U. S. Forest Service garage at Wild River. He sustained a broken collar bone and three ribs. He was taken to the hospital and later moved to his home where he is resting comfortably. AUTO ACCIDENT

Ralph Burris met with an accident Monday evening while going toward West Bethel. On reaching the top of the steep incline on Robertson Hill, he reached for the free wheeling button on the dash and instead touched the lighting switch, turning out the headlights.

Left in the dark on the icy incline, the car started to leave the road.

Applying the brakes, the car turned around several times before leaving the road. After being returned to the road, the car was found to be in running order, although the fenders were smashed. Mr. Burris was not injured. ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

GIRL SCOUT TROOP ORGANIZED IN BETHEL

What is the reason we haven't a Girl Scout Troop in Bethel?

This was the question asked so many times, during the past summer, by several young girls.

Realizing that there was no good reason a group of mothers met to talk the matter over. A Captain and Lieutenant were chosen. These, together with the troop committee, journeyed to Berlin, N. H. to obtain instructions from Miss Sullivan, a National Girl Scout Leader, who fortunately, for the ladies, willingly gave them very valuable advice.

Consequently, Nov. 27th, at the home of S. S. Greenleaf, a group of sixteen eager girls, gathered, and under the efficient leadership of Mrs. W. B. Twaddle as Captain, and Mrs. Earl Davis, as Lieutenant the Bethel Girl Scout Troop No. 1 was organized. The Troop Committee acts in an advisory capacity to the Captain and gives a troop of capable community backing. It is also, a useful means of fostering neighborhood interest in the troop. Members of the Troop Committee are Mrs. S.

S. Greenleaf, Mrs. Norman Hall,

Mrs. I. H. Wentzel and Mrs. Sherman Allen. As soon as these girls have passed their tenderfoot test and are full-fledged girl scouts, they will gladly welcome any girls between the ages of ten and fourteen years into their troop. WORTHLESS CHECKS PASSED

Worthless checks were passed on Tuesday of last week on M. A. N.

meys of Bethel and Carl Dudley of Bryant Pond. The checks were signed by John Redding and made out to Stanley Edwards. Two men, one claiming to be Stanley Edwards, purchased $25 worth of goods at Nalmeys and gave a $40 check. At Dudley's a $15 check was cashied. Mr. Redding said that he had drawn no check on that account for a year and the men had evidently stolen some of his blank checks. The men traveled in an

Erskine coupe. LADIES MINSTREL SHOW

What prominent local professor has a reducing expert for a wife?

Come to Odeon Hall Dec. 15 and learn the answer. The jokes in the Ladies Minstrel Show are witty and new. Between the interludes, Mis-Johnsing (Mrs. W. B. Twaddle) and the four end ladies, Sukey, Judy, Topsy and Dinah, there is a frequent and rapid fire of witticisms and local quips. From the smashing overture to the final harmonizing there is not a dull moment in the evening. The participants are lovely, lively and vivacious. The instrumental selections are good and the songs and dances are better. The costumes are a blaze of gorgeous

THANKSGIVING NOTES

Harold and Sidney Chamberlin spent Thanksgiving in Winthrop.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hall spent

Thanksgiving with their son, Fred

Hall, and family. Fred F. Bean was the Thanksgiving guest of Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Grover and family. Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Burk were guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. I. Clark, Thanksgiving Day. Asa Smith was at home from the C. C. Camp at Stow for Thanksgiving and the week end. Ira Hickford was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Warren and family Thanksgiving Day. Mrs. Alice V. Holman was the

SOUTH WOODSTOCK

Dec. 3—The first Sunday in Advent, the beginning of the Christmas season, continuing until the Twelfth Day, Jan. 6. The day is unusually warm for this time of year. No snow and strong indications of rain.

Mrs. Velma Brown Davis spent Thanksgiving week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Brown at Bryant Pond. Gerald Davis was an invited guest for the turkey dinner Thanksgiving Day.

The road construction at South Woodstock under the supervision of Road Commissioner Nelson Perham, is carrying on operations and showing good results. The road has been straightened, the roadbed widened, and is now in process of filling in and resurfacing.

Union School is again in session after all had enjoyed the Thanksgiving recess. Everything has seemed so quiet and still we have all truly missed the happy childish voices. What would we give to be a child again!

Just before the Thanksgiving recess a prize speaking program was at Union School by representatives of the different grades. The public was invited and the house was filled with an appreciative audience. The children all did fine and showed good training. Lucy Curtis of Curtis Hill was adjudged the best all around speaker and will later enter the contest for the town championship.

The youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Helkinnen is sick at this writing, having pneumonia. The boy is very smart in school work and all hope he may soon be well and fully recover his usual good health.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Barrett and Stanley also Ray Coffin, were at the family gathering of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Coffin at North Woodstock for the Thanksgiving dinner. About 20 sat down to the feast of good things prepared by Mother Coffin. The honor guest was the soldier son, home from Panama.

THANKSGIVING DAY, a day of feasting and rejoicing observed by the American people in every land. No matter where we may roam, the last Thursday in November brings us thoughts of home and home relationships. It is a day cherished from childhood as most wonderful among all days, to some the best day of all.

One of the largest family gatherings held at South Woodstock was that at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Harland Andrews, where the descendants of Ziba Andrews (one of the oldest settlers of this town) gathered around the festive Thanksgiving board. In direct descent were the grandchildren, Frank and Alvah, sons of Isaac Andrews (Isaac being a son of Ziba). Then Harland, son of Alvah, followed by Stanley and Linwood, sons of Harland, thus completing the fifth generation of this celebrated old family. Other representatives of the family were Mrs. Eva Andrews Titus and her family, Mrs. Titus being an only daughter of Alvah Andrews. There were 27 family relatives present for the Thanksgiving family reunion.

READING FUN IN STORE FOR BOYS

World adventure thrills are in store for readers of THE AMERICAN BOY — YOUTH'S COMPANION, according to word just received from the editor of youth's favorite magazine. From the Arctic to the jungles of Haiti, and from the plateau of Asia to the lion country of Africa, the editors have charted a course of excitement and fun in the 12 issues of 1934.

Several years ago, THE AMERICAN BOY introduced to its readers the popular, black-haired Jimmie Rhodes, Army aviator. Those who followed his adventures through Brooks and Kelly Field, and with the 94th Pursuit on cross-country hops, target practice, and formation flying, will be delighted to learn that Jimmie Rhodes has returned to the magazine. The new series takes him to Haiti where a revolution is impending.

THE AMERICAN BOY-YOUTH'S COMPANION, filled with the adventure every boy craves, with the information he needs, and the advice on hobbies and sports he is always seeking, is the ideal present for that son, cousin, nephew, and chum. It's the kind of present that renews itself every month when the mailman lays a copy on the doorstep. Approved by teachers and educators, and endorsed by high school America, the magazine can solve your Christmas shopping difficulties.

The subscription price is $2.00 for one year. Until January 1, you may take out a three-year subscription for $3.00, a saving of $3.00 over the one-year rate for the years. After January 1, this three-year rate will be withdrawn. Mail your order direct to THE AMERICAN BOY-YOUTH'S COMPANION, 7430 Second Blvd., Detroit, Mich. Service on your subscription will start with the issue you specify.

Albany—Waterford

Lieut. Roland Ranlett died at the C. M. G. Hospital, Lewiston, Friday after an illness of only a few days. Interment was in the family lot at East Stoneham. He was born in Haverhill, Mass., and had resided in Auburn several years. He was highly respected in this community where he has a summer home at Hutchinson pond.

F. E. Serflinger and crew are gravelling the road at South Albany. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Langway have returned home from a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ovid Langway of Charlton, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Anna of Bethel visited his aunt, Rose Eames, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. N. Sawin intend moving to South Waterford Dec. 10 for the winter. They will occupy one of Merton Kimball's rents.

Mrs. M. D. Kimball and three daughters of South Waterford visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. N. Sawin Sunday.

Mrs. Erwin Cummings spent several days recently with her cousin, June Brown.

Flora Abbott is ill and was taken to the hospital Sunday for treatment.

Herman Holt of South Waterford is cutting wood on his place at South Albany.

LOCKE MILLS

Mrs. Faye Stowell is visiting with her mother in Aroostook County.

Miss Naomi Heald spent the Thanksgiving vacation at her home in Buckfield.

Mrs. Florence Rand spent Thanksgiving in New York with her son Eben.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bennett were the Thanksgiving guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Abbott.

Ruby Day and Clarence Rolfe were married at the Congregational parsonage, Bethel, by Rev. L. A. Edwards, Saturday, Nov. 25.

Misses Gladys, Hazel and Eunice Salls were in Lewiston Saturday.

Experienced hunters will have to admit that they must take a back seat when it comes to getting the game. On Thanksgiving Day, while out rabbit hunting, Bryant Bean, 13, and Philip Scarborough, 15, shot and killed a seven-point buck which weighed approximately 200 pounds. Each boy fired four shots, seven of which were lodged in the neck and the other in the shoulder.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 7, 1933.

Thin ice has started taking its toll of skating victims. Bethel Village Corporation voted to raise no money for the skating rink this year.

It is rather depressing when one discovers the number of people who believe that good times can be produced by the issue of a pronouncement from Washington or a wave of the official wand. These same people, when good times do return, immediately are impatient and are ready for a change of some kind.
It takes a thinker to realize that changes in a nation as large as ours must be necessarily slow. The fact may as well be realized now as any time that there will be no white rabbit taken out of the hat and jobs picked up behind people's ears or out of their coat sleeves.
The recovery must be based on sound policies, common sense, patience and recognition of natural economic laws and not miracles.

It seems that Bethel's new dump in receiving the full patronage it deserves. Now that a convenient dumping place is provided why do some still persist in using the steel bridge for that purpose?

Along with our thoughts of taxes we may consider that more than one billion dollars is paid in this country annually by the 20,000,000 motor vehicle owners for licenses and fuel taxes to the various taxing agencies. The motorist has more to show for his tax than most other taxpayers—that is when the money is properly spent on the roads.

NEW YORK WALTER
TRUMBULL

Society is returning to Central park in increasing numbers. The socially elect are returning on roller skates. Nowadays observers may note members of the Junior League gliding over the long asphalt stretch on the Mall on roller skates along with youngsters from the tenements, matrons listed in the Social Register, and ice men. Celebrities of the stage and screen also go to the park to skate.

In the days when New York was little old New York, the Mall was merely a grassy plain and was a popular strolling place on Sunday afternoons. A band concert then was the most diverting feature. Incidentally, band concerts are still held on Sunday on the Mall during the summer season and Edwin Franko Goldman, band leader, wrote a march by that name, which is always popular with his audiences. In the old days of the quiet strolls, he was merely a cornet player in the band that delighted the old New Yorkers.

Back in those quiet old days, it was quite the thing to go driving in the park in the afternoon. Then the socially elect traveled the winding driveways at a slow pace in their carriages and other smart equipages, with sedate coachmen and frozen-faced footmen as attendants. When the automobile first came along, it so agitated the horses that cars were barred from the park. Now the motor car is in possession, with only occasionally a carriage, the occupant of which is usually some haughty dowager of an older day.

Manhattan ramblings and rumina-tions: A peck-legged accordion player on upper Broadway whose repertoire consists of airs of the old South. . . . Raises his hat and smiles whenever a coin drops into his cup. . . . But never misses a note. . . . The deserted old Wen-del mansion at Thirty-ninth street and Fifth Avenue. . . . Seems to grow more dingy each day. . . .
"Ghosts for the vast fortune still flashing in Surreale court. . . . A pallid Broadway columnist eating breakfast at Sardi's at four p. m. . . . Probably up early at that. . . . Lay off in front of the " "telling one another how good they are. . . . Vagabond folks are the greatest optimism in the world. . . . Actors are a close second. . . . Constance Collier on her way to the Actors' Dining Club. . . .
Days in a sandy, camera, alarm clock filled drug window: "We also sell prescriptions."

A Park avenue deb with a monade. . . . Haven't seen any of them in trousers as yet. . . . Plenty in riding breeches though. . . . Accidents are not infrequent on central park riding paths. . . . The daughter of a prominent family is still wearing a plaster cast as the result of one year ago. . . . and there's still a question whether or not she'll be able to walk without crutches. . . . Whenever I think of her I don't laugh when I see Central park riders bounding up and down on their mounts. . . . But I still think of Col Heinrich Plicker and his war-time riding class of the troit business men. . . . and what he used to say when he saw day light between the rider and the saddle.

Heard about a millionaire, who still has the money he made in the stock market. . . . Was playing contract bridge at a table of a cent a point. . . . Got $240 behind. . . . Tore up the cards with the remark, "I never did have any luck." . . . Mazie Collins (Hello Buckhampton!) would have said:

"With my luck." . . . Heard about an ex-millionaire in the financial district. . . . Hasn't a dime but is happy. . . . Says he's getting acquainted with the most wonderful woman in the world and the two finest boys. . . . Holds that closer contact with his family is worth more than a million. . . . Heard also about a cafeteria dishwasher who's paying the rent and grocery bills of a lower East side family to whom he isn't even related. . . .
But the family took him in a year ago when he was sick and down and out. . . . and he holds that as long as he has any kind of a job that family will have a roof and food. . . .
I like that.

Senior "Sphinx" Is True to Nickname

By WILLIAM L. BRUCKART
Washington. — Senior Alberto Pani, secretary of the treasury of Mexico, spent some time in Washington recently and demonstrated why he is called "the sphinx" in his home ballroom. A number of newspaper correspondents arranged to interview him, but their efforts were not altogether successful, for Senior "Sphinx" was just about that silent. One question after another was shot at him. His response usually was a shrug of the shoulder. Yet finally he warmed up and said: "Gentlemen, what is the use of all this? Let's have a drink."

TOM MANN ADMITTED

Among the passengers landing in New York the other day, was Tom Mann, veteran English Socialist and vice president of the Workers union. He was refused a visa to the United States several months ago, but the authorities changed their minds and let him in.

See the striking decorations on our first floor!

We refer particularly to the panels entitled "Christmastime in other Lands." They were originated by ourselves and we have received many favorable comments about them. A short description accompanies each panel giving the history of the event it portrays.

See our wonderful large TOYLAND on the 2nd floor

Bring the children to Toyland and come yourself to this magic land of gaiety and laughter—fun and joy — with practically every kind of a toy to fulfill a child's dreams of Christmas Day. And the prices will surprise you. They're wonderfully easy on your pocketbook.

Santa Claus

Santa Claus may be seen in his workshop in our large window every morning and afternoon. Santa also broadcasts every evening at 5:15 from WCSH. Listen in!

Our Large Furniture Department

EASTERN STAR BANQUET

On Wednesday evening a banquet was given at Maple Inn by Purity Chapter, O. E. S., in honor of the Past Matrons and Past Patrons. Places were laid for 56 members and guests. The attractive dining and tables were decorated with the colors of the order, cut flowers and seasonable favors. A delicious banquet was enjoyed.

The post-prandial program, prefaced by clever remarks and stories, was presented by Henry Boyker. Mrs. F. L. Edwards was unable to be present but her toast to the members at large was read by Mrs. A. Van Den Kerkhoven. Mrs. R. R. Tibbitts offered a witty toast in rhyme to the Past Matrons and Past Patrons. Milton White of Worcester, Mass., spoke on behalf of the visitors. Earl Davis responded as Worthy Patron and Mrs. Erma Young was enthusiastically greeted when she spoke as Presiding Matron.

A spirit of happiness and cordiality made the occasion one to be remembered.

Most Densely Populated

There are no accurate population figures of world-wide scope, as there are many millions of persons on earth who are unknown to the census taker. Available figures, however, show that the little province of Macao, China, an island at the mouth of the Canton river and a colonial possession of Portugal, is the most densely populated country. This is according to a list given in the World Almanac. Macao's area is four square miles, and the 1927 census gave it a population of 137,170. 33,291 persons to the square mile.

RUMFORD TEAMS

PLAY TON

Tonight is the big night for basketball fans as the Rumford teams will play the Berlin team. The visitors will be led by a big, fast aggregation of three veterans of the Bates tourney team. I good basketball never fails to draw at the gymnasium when it visits that stronghold.

But! after seeing the action in action against the Berlin team, it looks as though the good basketball will be played by one team tonight.

The local outfit hit its stride and should be the best entertained the schedule this year.
